Ernest Marchetti of Forsythe place received a message yesterday advising him of the sudden death of Louis Mazzolini, a well known merchant and resident of Randolph. A number of local people expect to go to Randolph to-morrow to attend the funeral, which will be held in the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Despite the kinks and cases of charley horse which naturally resulted from its first game of the season Saturday, Goddard seminary's football team was ready for scrimmage practice again yesterday afternoon and had it not been for the inferior brand of weather Coaches Hoernle and Early would have been ready to put their charges through a stiff practice.

Within a space of 10 days the eleven expects to meet a sub-varsity team from Middlebury college, St. Michael's college and the Colby academy team.

Mrs. James Tassie left the city this morning for St. Albans, where she was called by the death of her father, W. R. Donaldson, who passed away Sunday afternoon at the age of 75 years, the end following a long period of poor health.

Funeral services were held in St. Albans this afternoon at 2 o'clock and the body was taken to North Hero for interment. The deceased was a native of Swanton and as a young man served creditably in the Civil war. For many years prior to his removal to St. Albans in 1914 he was a prominent figure in Grand Isle county, having made his home in North Hero. He is survived by two sons, four daughters, two sisters and three brothers. Among the 12 grandchildren surviving are the six children of Mrs. James Tassie.

Posters announcing the forthcoming visit of James Duncan to Barre were distributed by the Central Labor Union committee yesterday. The posters show an excellent likeness of the man who was chosen by President Wilson as an envoy extraordinary to Russia and who accompanied the Root commission to the new republic. Mr. Duncan is to speak in the opera house Friday evening at 8 o'clock on "The Soul of Russia" and in connection with the announcement it is stated that Robert W. Simonds, commissioner of industries, will act as chairman. The Montpelier Military band will furnish music. Two weeks later Mr. Simonds is to appear in the opera house to explain factory inspection and workingmen's liabilities legislation.

Unless there is a recurrence of the poliomyelitis outbreaks which have menaced Barre this year, the public schools will be re-opened next Monday, according to a statement made to-day by Chairman Joseph Comelli of the school commission. The health authorities are determined to observe the two weeks' rule, but in the present instance, while a case was definitely reported last Friday, it had been under observation since Monday and the required fortnight will have expired Oct. 15. In the meantime, the school teachers, most of whom reported for duty a week ago yesterday, are occupying themselves with frequent meetings and with making minor preparations for the resumption of sessions. A meeting of the teachers was held at Spaulding school yesterday.

Would It Be Interesting to You to Know that we are better prepared to take care of your every Dry Goods want than ever before. This means quite a lot in times like these.

All Fall Goods are here. All Christmas Goods are bought, and a part of them are now in our store. These goods are coming in earlier than usual, hoping to avoid transportation difficulties. We have added to our different lines many new ideas. All of these will tend to make our store a larger and a better shopping center.

Wool Goods

Retail prices on Wool Goods to-day do not represent the advance of wholesale prices.

All of our Sweaters are selling to-day at but little more than the wholesale price if bought to-day. This lot is all that we will try to handle this season. If you can buy early, it is to your advantage to do so.

We have Hoagknit Sweaters for children, boys, misses, ladies and gents. The heaviest Gents' Shaker Sweater that we carry costs now only $7.98. It's worth on any market $10.00. The yarn in this Sweater is worth more than the price of the Sweater.

We have a small quantity of Gray Mixed and Khaki Yarn that has just arrived—a back order.

We have several lots of Ladies' Wool Underwear that we cannot get more of that we are closing at a sale price.

Children's Wool Sets are now ready.

Novelties

We are always on the watch for new ideas. You will see lots of them in our store from now on.

OUR NEW ART DRAPERIES have interesting attractions. They are new and very pretty. There are all grades, from 15c up to $1.00 per yard. This, we believe, is the largest assortment of Art Draperies in any one store in Vermont. We would like your judgment on these new Draperies.

The craze now is knitting. Every lady has one or more of these large Work Bags made of Art Drapery in some new, rather loud design.

Novelties in Neckwear that don't seem any more expensive than last season.

New designs in Shell Hair Goods. Some of the new ones come in new designs of brilliant settings.

By the last of this month we will be showing the largest line of Quality Christmas Cards that has ever been shown in town. These are all of them of the very highest order, selling for from 2 for 5c up to 50c each.

When in our store you should always try to spare a few moments for our bargain basement.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See sweater values at Abbott's. Right prices on blankets at Fitts'. R. E. Henderson of Woodsville, N. H., was a business visitor in town to-day.

Regular meeting of Ruth chapter, No. 33, O. E. S., Wednesday evening, Oct. 10, at 7:30 o'clock.

Luther Lugee, who has been spending the past few days in town with friends, left this morning for Burlington, where he has been engaged to teach at the University of Vermont during the coming year.

Frank Lawless of South Barre, who was a member of the 1917 graduating class of Spaulding high school, left yesterday afternoon for Burlington, where he will enroll in the University of Vermont. He was accompanied by Hugh Cole, who has been spending the past few days at his home on Orange street, and who will resume his studies in the University of Vermont.

C. F. Smith was in Randolph recently holding a sale of 61 head of cattle for W. H. Pelton. This herd was picked up in different places last spring and turned to pasture through the summer. Cows sold for from $40 to $80, two-year-old heifers $40 to $80, yearling heifers $25 to $40. This was a clean-up sale and every creature was disposed of. Mr. Smith goes to Norwich to-morrow to hold a sale for S. W. Melendy, 62 head of cattle, horses, crops, farm tools, household furniture, etc. Thursday afternoon of this week, Charlie Dow in Washington, cows, young cattle and hay. Friday afternoon this week, A. D. Melver on Ver-shire heights, five miles from Chelsea, 24 cows and horses.

At the annual meeting of the Men's club of the First Presbyterian church last evening officers were elected for the ensuing year and plans discussed for a program of fall, winter and spring gatherings. Kenneth McElroy was elected president and the remaining officers are as follows: Vice-president, Alexander C. Walker; secretary and treasurer, James V. Lang (re-elected); program committee, Mr. McKee, Rev. Edgar Crossland, George Young, A. C. Walker and John Walker. Monthly meetings are to be held, as in past years, although the date is to be changed from the first Monday to the first Tuesday in each month.

An attractive circular, setting forth the speakers and other entertainers who are to appear before the club from time to time is to be issued by the program committee within a short time.

Supt. H. H. Hodgdon, who passed the week end at his home on Highland avenue, returned yesterday afternoon to Camel's Hump, where he is supervising the erection of a telephone line across Ricker mountain to connect at Waterbury with one of the trunk lines of the New England Telephone company. A number of Barre hikers are encamped at the foot of the mountain. Wet weather has materially retarded the work since it was gotten under way a month ago, although it is expected that the line will be completed in time to connect subscribers before the expiration of another month.

W. H. Norris, whose Williamstown-Barre jitney helps to keep the grass from growing on the main highway south, called at police headquarters this morning to free his mind of opinions formed in any number of encounters with lightless vehicles. The jitney driver states that autoists as well as team owners are driving at night without the least regard for the law which says that all manner of vehicles shall be lighted. He sought a comparison of notes with Chief Sinclair to ascertain whether his interpretation of the traffic laws was correct.

The police head found that Mr. Norris' ideas were very much in accord with those contemplated by the legislators in framing the road lighting law.
